PRESENT:

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

HIS Royal Highness the Governor-General in Council is pleased to order as follows:—

The first paragraph of section 2 of the Coal-mining Regulations, established by Order in Council of April 20th, 1910, and amended by subsequent Orders in Council, is hereby rescinded and the following substituted in lieu thereof:—

RODOLPHE BOUDREAU,
mh27 Clerk of the Privy Council.

[234.]

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Thursday, the 6th day of February, 1913.

PRESENT:

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by clauses 19 and 20 of the "Dominion Lands Act," which Act came into force September 1st, 1908, provision was made concerning the cases of deceased and insane homesteaders, relieving the legal representatives of the residence requirement and making certain other provisions;

And whereas the "Dominion Lands Act" does not apply to the Railway Belt of British Columbia, which is governed by the "Regulations for the disposal of Dominion lands within the Railway Belt in the Province of British Columbia," established by Order in Council of December 17th, 1889, and amendments thereto, and the legal representatives of deceased and insane homesteaders have not the relief accorded to similar cases on the Prairies;

And whereas it is considered necessary and in the public interest that the said provisions should apply in the said Railway Belt;

Therefore the Governor-General in Council is pleased to order as follows:—

The regulations for the disposal of Dominion land within the Railway Belt in the Province of British Columbia, hereinbefore referred to, are hereby amended to provide that all cases of deceased and insane homesteaders in the said Railway Belt shall be dealt with in accordance with the following provisions, namely:

Deceased Homesteaders.

In the event of the death of an entrant for a homestead before the completion of the requirements for the obtaining of letters patent therefor, his legal representatives shall only be required to fulfil the cultivation conditions and to erect a habitable house in order to entitle him to obtain letters patent, after the expiration of three years from the date of entry or commencement of the homesteader's residence; or the legal representative may assign the homestead to a person eligible to obtain a homestead entry; and the assignee shall, after (a) the expiration of three years from the date of entry or commencement of the homesteader's residence; (b) holding the homestead for his own exclusive use and benefit from the date of the assignment; and (c) completing the residence and cultivation requirements in the same manner as the person who made the entry would have been required to complete them, be entitled to letters patent for the homestead.

Insane Homesteaders.

In the event of any person who obtained entry for a homestead becoming insane or mentally incapable and, by reason of such insanity or mental incapacity, unable to complete the requirements necessary for the obtaining of letters patent therefor, the guardian or committee of the said person, or any person who, in the event of his death, would be entitled as his legal representative to do so, shall only be required to fulfil the cultivation conditions and to erect a habitable house before the issue of letters patent: Provided that the letters patent shall not issue until the expiration of three years from the date of entry or commencement of the homesteader's residence.

RODOLPHE BOUDREAU,
